

"Like fellow Yolngu artist Gurrumul, Gawurra commands attention regardless of backdrop."

4.5 Star Review

"Gawurra celebrates the natural wonders of his homeland in Gupapuyngu language across his debut album."

The West Australian

"The rising star of Aboriginal music has walked away with four awards from five nominations, including best new talent."

Gawurra Gaykamangu is a Yolngu professional performing artist hailing from Milingimbi (Yurrwi), North East Arnhem Land. With an emotional and resonant voice, Gawurra's performances deliver a masterful musical sensitivity.

In 2016, Gawurra won the NT Song of the Year in the Pop category, four NIMA Awards and received national recognition throughout the music industry and mainstream media, including ARIA nomination and 4.5-star review in Rolling Stone magazine.

Gawurra's star has continued to rise in 2017, mounting his first national tour of Australia with SOLD OUT appearances in mainstream music venues throughout the country and as a featured performer at major music festivals. Gawurra has established himself as a "must see" live act, gathering a mainstream following and captivating his audiences across the country.

In 2017, Gawurra started his own professional music and artist services business, Gawurra Catfish Corporation, to deliver Artist Representation, Music Production, Music Licensing and Recording Label Services. Gawurra Catfish Corporation operates out of Melbourne, Australia.

Yolngu people feel the spirit in Gawurra's music in their hearts. The emotion in his voice touches everyone to build and refresh their spirit, making them stronger through the vine of love. Gawurra is a genuine young leader in his community, a respected song man with knowledge and power. It is important for Gawurra to connect his culture through his music to all peoples sharing the love from small communities of the Northern Territory to the major mainstream international music markets of the world.
